

Château Salitis, Languedoc-Roussillon, France

*"Cuvée des Dieux"
(Vintage for Gods)*

*Grapes with 25% of each:
Cabernet Sauvignon,
Merlot,
Grenache, Syrah.*

An elegant wine to enjoy with both red and white meat.

Château Salitis is a remarkable winery owned by the Maurel family for five generations and located in the southern part of France in "Cabardès". Château Salitis is an ambassador of this region with its high quality wine and the history of the family goes back more than 100 years in this wine district.

The Cabardès wine district is characterized by a very elegant blend of the Mediterranean grapes Syrah and Grenache with the classic Bordeaux grapes Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon.

The wines of Château Salitis reflect freshness and sunshine from this wonderful part of France. The wines are well balanced with a delicious nose and aromas with a round after taste.